

MARKING RUBRIC

Assessor Name
Programme	Advanced Diploma in Business Analysis (ADBA)	Module	Business Strategy, Analysis and Planning (20 credits)
Module NQF	7	Year	1
Assessment Type	CASE STUDY

QUESTION NUMBER	GUIDELINE	MARK ALLOCATION
QUESTION 1 Evaluate TWO (2) software development models that EcoTrack Solutions could consider for this project.	a. 8 marks for clearly describing two software development models with correct comparison of flexibility, stakeholder engagement, and risk management. b. 5 marks for recommending and substantiating a software development model appropriate to EcoTrack's context. c. 2 marks for linking the chosen software development model's nature to climate action.	15
QUESTION 2 Discuss how EcoTrack Solutions can apply appropriate programming languages and operational information systems to support environmental sustainability and align with SDG 13.	a. 6 marks for explaining two relevant programming languages and justifying the suitability for EcoTrack's mobile/web sustainability app. b. 6 marks for accurately comparing operational information systems that capture transport and fuel data, generate emission trend reports and analyse sustainability strategies.	15

	c. 3 marks for evaluating ICT policy implications and their alignment with SDG 13.
TOTAL MARKS		30

	Poor	Acceptable	Achieved	Exemplary
	0 - 49%	50 - 59%	60 - 74%	75% +
COGNITIVE ABILITIES	Inadequate to limited information base. Lack of understanding of key issues and research skills. Weak academic/intellectual skills	Basic/satisfactory knowledge of key issues/concepts. Descriptive in part however some ability to demonstrate synthesis. Limited evidence of creativity of thought.	Demonstrates a good analysis of key issues and concepts. Good development of conceptual structures. Demonstrates good evidence of creativity of thought, evidence of knowledge.	Demonstrates a high level of intellectual rigour. Excellent academic/intellectual skills. Considerable creativity and originality.
CONTENT	Inadequate or limited evidence of relevant literature	Demonstrates Mastery of an adequate body of relevant literature	Demonstrates Mastery of a substantial relevant literature	Demonstrates Mastery of a substantial relevant literature
ARGUMENT/ANALYSIS	Basic knowledge of key issues/concepts. Limited research skills and problem solving skills. Largely descriptive with restricted synthesis and little or no argument.	Demonstrates adequate organisation of content and a coherent argument. Descriptive, with ability to develop conceptual structures and arguments.	Demonstrates evidence of comprehensive understanding of the knowledge acquired. Evidence of good application of information from the range of relevant sources.	Demonstrates independence of thought. High level of intellectual rigour and consistency. Excellent expressive skills and originality. Demonstrates a wide breadth of knowledge and its application
SYNTAX AND USAGE	Inadequate and poor presentation of work (e.g. bibliography/reference list and in-text referencing, style, accurate grammar etc.)	Reasonable presentation of work (e.g. bibliography/reference list and in-text referencing, style, accurate grammar etc.)	Good presentation of work (e.g. bibliography/reference list and in-text referencing, style, accurate grammar etc.)	Excellent presentation or work(e.g. bibliography/reference list and in-text referencing, style, accurate grammar etc.)